NIGHT SCHOOLS ARE CROWDED May Add Another Teacher to Lint. Superintendent of Instruction Pearse said that he would consider the advisability of adding a fourth teacher at the two night large attendance. In connection with the night schools, the superintendent said it is not unlikely that the question of opening one or more buildat the next meeting of the board. Providing one additional school is opened, it should be in the Farnam school building, at Twenty-ninth avenue, according to the superintendent, and if two, they should be
